Domalapai Dandayatra

GMC organised Domalapai Dandayatra campaign in the Municipal schools. Students from the various institutions took part in the campaign to curb the mosquito menace within the city limits. Commissioner GMC MS C Anuradha laid stress that people should keep their houses and surroundings clean to curb the reproduction of mosquitoes. Under Domalapai Dandayatra GMC made 34 teams to promote the awareness among the people about the health and hygiene. Speaking on the occasion commissioner said awareness should be imparted to the people so that the city environment will be pleasant and free from diseases.

Poster free Guntur

Guntur Municipal Corporation selected 20 places for colorful wall paintings that would aid in beautification for Swachha poster free city. GMC commissioner said that GMC is planning to transform Guntur into a poster free city and hence the wall art campaign has been started. Earlier Margam Foundation trust painted the walls taking the volunteers from different colleges of the city. Now Amravati art and cultural academy started painting walls to make them attractive and enhance the aesthetics of the city.

Removal of cellar shops

Guntur Municipal Corporation launched the demolition of illegal cellar shops in the commercial areas of the city. Town planning officials said that cellar shops are illegal and not approved in the plan of the city. Speaking of the occasion City Planner S Chakrapani said that all cellar shops are to be dedicated to the parking lots without deviating from the plan approved by GMC. City planner said that they would collect the demolition charges from the owners if they don't demolish the structures by their own.

Central Median beautification

To enhance the beautification of the city all the central medians are beautified along the major roads of the Guntur Municipal Corporation. The central medians are beautified by planting the flowering plants and ground cover. Apart from these plants, trees are being planted which enhance the overview and will be beneficial keeping in view the air quality of the city. Commissioner Guntur Municipal Corporation Smt. C Anuradha said that central medians are to be beautified as it will not only be aesthetically beautiful but at the same time will be functionally viable and the green cover will act as lungs to refresh the air of the city.
